NO. 13

The Influence of Churches.

That the churches in any community exercise a most potent influence for good, is conceded by all except the most rabid or blatant infidel whose egotism and self-conceit blind his mind to the inestimable value of Christianity. But to what extent are the churches valuable in this community? The Galilean teacher said of His disciples: "Ye are the light of the world." Ye are the salt of the earth." Hence, if all His disciples are the light of the world and the salt of the earth, the logical as well as the scriptural conclusion is that they are the light of the community in which they live. These declarations, however, do not preclude the possibility of the light going out—being hidden under a bushel—or the salt losing its saltiness. But certainly no reasonable or fair-minded persons would accuse the churches of being wholly composed of united bands of hypocrites. For it matters not to what extent sin, in its many forms, may pervade the ranks of any church, you will find, within its membership, consecrated men and women. And it should be borne in mind that it only requires a few of the above-mentioned class to become the light of the community.

Prompt settlement on the part of customers has much to do with the ability of our merchants to swing their business in so able a manner. On the other hand, too liberal credit without regard to whom, has been known to put many an honest merchant out of business.

Clyde M. Rumfield, formerly of this city, who recently visited relatives here has an extended article in the Railroad News, in which he pays Kentucky and Kentuckians a high tribute. Mr. Rumfield was formerly employed in the L. & E. depot at this place and is now yard clerk for the Pan Handle Railroad at Columbus, Ohio.

March is usually one of the wettest months in the year, but not so this time. There is not likely to be another month with so little rainfall as this month. Our roads of mud have changed to dust, and farmers are farther ahead with their work than were a month later last year.

The mining of flour spar in Crittenden county is being revived. Since January 16,000,000 pounds has been shipped from Marion, and the bank deposits have increased $100,000 as the result of the business. Old mines are being improved and new ones are being opened.

The Irvine Cemetery Company has been organized at Irvine with $1,500 capital. Hugh Riddell has been elected president and D. A. Wallace Secretary.

At this season of the year heretofore the cry has been, "mud, mud, mud," this year it is dust. A most agreeable change.

Arbor Day it seems will need to be changed. April 8th is too late this year to set out trees.

We call attention to the new ads in the Times this week. Read them and profit by doing so.

Mrs. L. T. Hagan, of Winchester, is visiting Mesdames Jennie Russell and J. W. Williams.

Born, Wednesday, March 30th to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Carr, a son.

Appreciative Words.

It is only the exceptional reader that realizes the trials and worries that the editor of the average country weekly must contend with. His work for the community is seldom appreciated as in this case.

"You may enter my subscription for one year to the Times and I want to pay it now," said one of the best known citizens of Powell county a day or two ago. "I want to encourage the good work that I believe you are trying to do for this county and presume this is about the best way to show my appreciation," he continued.

"This little evidence of appreciation came at the end of an unusual busy and trying day when we were feeling a little as though newspaper business in general was a failure, and that the public did not deserve earnest and conscientious effort in that line. Right in this connection we want to have just a little heart to heart talk with those who are habitual kickers at newspapers in general, and we want to preface these remarks with the statement that all newspapers are not bad, nor are they all good. It should not be difficult, however, watching the conduct of a publication over a period of years or months even, to distinguish which class it belongs. There is a great difference between honest mistakes and deliberate lies. The Times has made lots of the former, but has not one of the latter to its discredit.

"We expect to go right ahead making errors and telling the truth. We are always glad to make corrections, but we have no need of making retractions.

"In the matter of editorial policy the editor is called upon every day to decide almost a moment's notice the right or wrong of questions that others have taken days, weeks or months to study out the details of. On subjects that he is not thoroughly familiar with, nothing but his intuition, due to his peculiar mental training, can guide him, and the fact that the editor is much more often right than wrong in his contentions speaks fairly well for his intuition.

"The position of the newspaper man is made the more trying because his errors will stand out like a black shadow of sin on the printed page, with not one chance to dodge the evidence.

"When we consider all these things there is just a slight warmth of pride and happiness that passes over us at the words of appreciation from a man of education and culture. They are the few cool and refreshing oasis in the desert, that make the travel worth while."

Dr. Martin reports the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Baker Sunday, March 27th.

Tomorrow is April Fool day. If you don't want to get caught, leave town.

The Powell Fiscal Court will be in regular session next Tuesday.

Democratic Landslide.

Before the Congressional special election in Massachusetts last week, Taft went up there and spoke in a vain effort to save the district-Republican. He told the people that the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill was the best revenue getter this country ever had. And so it is but the poorest people pay the bill this is why nineteen thousand Republicans changed over. Taft said last year the bill was very poor and talked of not signing the measure. Wonder why the change in Mr. Taft's mind? But, by the way, we trust the Republicans will make good use of the President this fall in the Congressional campaign and wish him the great success he has had in Massachusetts.

Telephone Improvements.

The local telephone has this week been supplied with a new switch board which has been sadly needed for some time. Henry Watson, who recently purchased the line from Mt. Sterling here and the exchange here is preparing to make extended improvements and further the use of the system. We long to see such improvements, and believe when these improvements are made the business in this city and county will be more than doubled.

Mrs. Wm. C. Martin is visiting her father, J. W. Conlee, at Mt. Sterling.

It will be to your interest to see our line of spring and summer suits and odd pants for men and boys before making your purchases. This seasons styles are unusually pretty and we can show you all the new colors and cuts and at prices that will interest you. Hardwick & Co., Stanton.

Smart Facts.

The night-key is not usually the key to success.

Even the wise men are occasionally otherwise.

A mortgage on the house will not prevent the roof from leaking.

There are some men so lazy these Spring days that they will not even file their liens.

The business of a promoter is to persuade your money into his pocket.

There is many a stump speaker who would much better be at home pulling the stumps from his own clearing.

Some of the real farmers complain that the average city agriculturist doesn't know a corn on the hand from corn in the ear.

The man who sets out in life's race expecting to have a walk-over is likely to be run over before he has proceeded far upon his way.

To the people of Powell Co., Ky.:

The change of nineteen thousand Republican voters Democratic in a congressional election in Massachusetts in which the Democrat carried the district by over five thousand means that the Republicans will not have a hand full of members in the next House of Representatives and Champ Clark's majority that he will lead in the next Congress will be so large that it will almost be unwieldy. Under the Republican rule of 5 years, the trusts have gotten such a hold on this country that they dictate the prices that the producer shall receive for his goods, and then they dictate the prices that the ultimate consumer must pay for those goods in their finished state. The country is tired of that sort of deal, and will be heard from at the election this Fall.

Our government office at Washington acts as agent for a printing firm in Dayton, O., where the printing of envelopes is done on a very large scale. This fact has not been generally known until recently and not until the press of the country made war upon the plan and bared the scheme. Thousands of dollars that should have passed through the hands of the printers and publishers of the country have been side tracked in this way, and legitimate profits lost, but now there is a strong probability of this matter being stopped after June 30, 1911, if a recommendation to this effect in the annual post office appropriation bill passed by the house becomes a law. The bill is now before the senate.

Presumably the placing of quotation marks around these "United States of ours," by a New York Journal, means that the publication speaks in the fullness of the knowledge that ownership rests in the gentleman from Rhode Island.
We just didn't believe the House would treat Uncle Joe that way.

It will be remembered that when Willson ran for Governor he appealed strongly for the vote of the old Confederate veterans and claimed that eighty per cent. of these old soldiers voted for him. If that be true, we guess they are busy kicking themselves sore because they did it, now that Willson has vetoed the Confederate pension bill which recently passed the Legislature. When a white Southerner expects a favor at the hands of such partisans as Willson and etc., they will be disappointed, and when they vote the Republican ticket they vote to decapitate themselves.

A prominent Winchester physician last week bought two 100 pound shoats for $16 per hundred pounds. The Democrat thought that was the record price paid for hogs in Kentucky, but Col. Sam Stairs, of the Dover News, says a physician of that town paid $32 for two sixty pounds shoats. If any of our readers want to know how much this is per hundred pounds they must figure it out themselves. The hog market has reached such prices as above indicated that we've quit figuring. —Winchester Democrat.

"It is uncomfortable sometimes," says Uncle Joe Cannon, "to live in a government by the people," well, yes; for instance, when the one becomes the engineer of a machine that seeks to make the government by the people merely a government by the machine.

Champ Clark is the first leader of a Minority in Congress in our history who completely overthrew a strong and well organized majority. All honor to Champ Clark, the brilliant Democratic leader who unhorsed Joe Cannon. You just watch "him" and "it."

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.
